

The Alaska Association for Historic Preservation

Most Endangered Historic Properties & Heritage Sites Nomination Form

To increase public awareness of endangered historic properties, the Alaska Association for Historic Preservation (AAHP) identifies the State's most endangered historic properties and heritage sites during National Historic Preservation Week each May. The properties on this list are nominated by individuals and historic preservation organizations throughout the state. AAHP requests your assistance in identifying historic properties that are endangered.

To nominate a property to the endangered list, please complete this form and mail it by March 31st to:

The Alaska Association for Historic Preservation
645 West 3rd Ave.
Anchorage, Alaska 99501

Please provide a copy (on 3½" disk or CD) of all written information in either MS Word or Word Perfect (PC) format with your submittal.

This form is also available in digital format. To receive a copy via email, please contact AAHP at aahp@alaska.net. Emailed submittals will be accepted, provided all information below is incorporated in the following format.

Property name nominated:

Location:

Property owner and address:

Property owner's participation in nomination? ___ yes ___ no
(Participation is desirable but not required)

Name of individual preparing form

and address:

Phone:

Day _____ Evening _____

Property description:

Property history:

Property's historic significance: (For example, does it contribute to local history? Is it associated with a famous person? Is it important for its architectural significance either classical or vernacular?)

Why is the property endangered? (For example, endangered by insufficient funding, by development, by neglect, etc.?) Explain.

Activities underway to save this property:

Property is listed in the National Register of Historic Places? ___ yes ___ no

Please provide a minimum of one (1) publishable photograph of the building or site with this nomination. Multiple photos and/or slides are preferable. A digital version of each photo would be helpful. Include the date of the photograph and the photographer's credit. Historic photographs (in digital format if available) are desirable but not required.

Permission to publish photographs:

Signature and date